MÉXICO

Dear Lic. Mariana Boy Tamborrell:

As called for under the 1999 U.S.-Mexico Consultative Mechanism for the Exchange of Information on New and Existing Facilities for the Management of Hazardous and Radioactive Waste, the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) would like to share information on permitted hazardous waste treatment, storage, disposal and recycling facilities in the U.S. border area with your ministry. We would also like to acknowledge our agreement to share information on these facilities on an annual basis.

In addition to the sharing of hazardous waste treatment, storage, disposal and recycling facilities, members at the 2015 Border 2020 National Coordinators Meeting in El Paso, Texas agreed to share information on Spent Lead Acid Batteries (Attachment 1) and Electronics Refurbishers and Recyclers (Attachment 2) in the border area on an annual basis. This is the first year that we have included the additional information, which is enclosed. To help visualize the location of the facilities, a map has also been enclosed.

As always, the updated list of U.S. commercial hazardous waste facilities that have been permitted by the EPA or U.S. border states is also enclosed. Since our last exchange of information through the Consultative Mechanism in October 2014, there have been changes in the status of four facilities (See Table 1 for a summary and Attachment 3 for more detailed information). All four facilities have closed and are no longer included on the U.S. Hazardous Waste Treatment, Storage, Disposal and Recycling Facilities table (Attachment 4) or the associated map (Attachment 5).
