Cooperation and Collaboration in the Service of Natural Resource Protection During Pollution

Response:

Agencies Working Together in Region IX

Submitted by the Department of the Interior

Office of Environmental Policy and Compliance, Oakland

Presented by Patricia Port,

Regional Environmental Officer

Protecting our Resources

- Funding & personnel time very limited due to shrinking budgets & expanded mandates
- Collaboration Improves Quality and Efficiency
  - Federal
  - State
  - Local Communities

Resource Trustees

- Preparedness planning is aligned with Department of the Interior's (DOI) mission
- As resource trustees, the Bureaus within DOI have information & special training to contribute to contingency planning
- The Office of Environmental Policy and Compliance (OEPC) provides coordination between the bureaus within DOI

Office of Environmental Policy and Compliance, Region IX

- Protecting resources & providing environmental policy guidance in the public's interest
- Coordinates between diverse bureaus to provide clear & consistent resource information & priorities to contingency planners

US Bureau of Reclamation

protect water and related resources in an environmentally and economically sound manner in the interest of the American public

- Waterways can carry a spill & increase damages if not contained quickly
- BOR can provide information about water flows, reservoirs, & possible equipment

US Fish & Wildlife Service, Region IX

working with others to conserve, protect and enhance fish, wildlife, and plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people

- Threatened & Endangered Species
- Migratory Bird Flyways
- Knowledge, Experience, Priorities

US Bureau of Indian Affairs, Region IX

fulfill its trust responsibilities and promote self-determination on behalf of Tribal Governments, American Indians and Alaska Natives

- BIA can supply information about land ownership, populations at risk in the case of a spill, & provide coordination between tribes & US government
- BIA ensures that tribes have a voice in the planning process

Case Study Region IX: Truckee River Geographic Response Plan

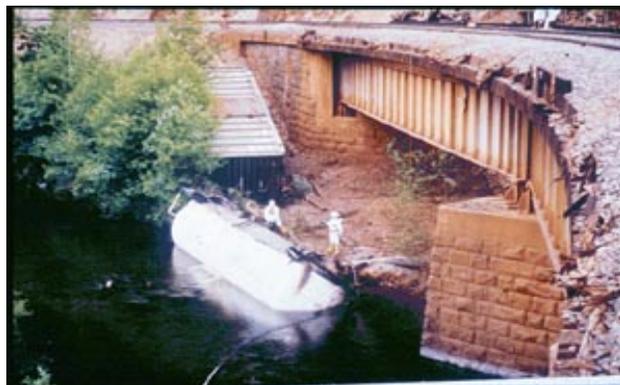

- Recently completed by EPA
- Developed through collaborative workshops
- Identify resources that require protection
- Develop operational strategies
- Pinpoint logistical support

Case Study Region IX: Lower Colorado Area Contingency Plan

- Early coordination between bureaus in DOI
- List of bureau contacts
- Participated in planning activities

Case Study Region IX: Upper Sacramento Area Contingency Plan

- Upper Sacramento River is a priority for DOI – high number of spills increases vulnerability of resources in area
- Transportation routes near or over rivers increases risk of spill impacting public resources
- Cantara Loop, one of 107 crossings of the Sacramento River has a history of spills

A Need for Updates

- Many Area Contingency Plans in Region IX are 10+ years old
- Updating provides changes in information such as:
  - Changes in land status
  - Improvements in technology
  - Changes in agency roles or staff
  - Up-to-date information on equipment & resource priorities

US Bureau of Land Management

sustains the health, diversity, and productivity of the public lands for the use and enjoyment of present and future generations

- A Need for Updates:
Changes in Land Status
- National Monuments:
management plans

US Geological Survey

providing reliable scientific information to describe and understand the Earth; minimize loss of life and property from natural disasters; manage water, biological, energy, and mineral resources; and enhance and to protect our quality of life

- A Need for Updates:
Technological Advances
- USGS utilizes new mapping technology & data collection techniques that will improve contingency planning documents

Collaboration, Cooperation, Success

- Spill Response Preparedness aligns with all agency goals:
  - DOI
  - All DOI bureaus
  - OEPC
- Coordination and sharing of information
- Continued revision and updates
