Agenda

1. Welcome – Jennifer McLain
2. Metric Proposal – The subgroup will provide an update on their proposal to revisit, augment and implement metrics for progress on in vitro testing by setting specific goals and measuring progress to achieve these goals in the context of acute hazard labeling studies.
3. Revised Future FACA Proposal – The workgroup will discuss the updated draft proposal for a workshop in 2013 focusing on Tox21 tools currently being utilized and/or considered by EPA.
4. Biomarker Definitions – As a result of the October 2011 biomarker workshop and questions from the PPDC, OPP has worked with ORD to develop a set of biomarker definitions for the EPA website. The goal of these definitions is to provide clarity on biomarker terminology.
5. Status of Subject Matter Experts Group for the Development of a Priority Pesticide List – An expert group of scientists and public health professionals is charged with establishing prioritization criteria and making recommendations on pesticides that should be the focus of further biomarker research and development. .
6. Presentation to the PPDC – This workgroup will present to the general PPDC during the morning session on November 30, 2012 on the following:
 - Future FACA Proposal – The workgroup will present the PPDC with a proposal for a FACA-like workshop in 2013

- Overview of Ongoing Workgroup Projects – The workgroup will present an overview of ongoing efforts including the metrics proposal and the expert group for the development of a priority pesticide list
- Biomarker Definitions – As a result of the October 2011 biomarker workshop and questions from the PPDC, OPP worked with ORD to develop a set of biomarker definitions.
- The presentation will be followed by an update on other OPP 21st Century science activities.
