Summary: This rule updates the official mailing address for EPA, due to the relocation of the majority of its Headquarter offices to downtown Washington, DC.

State Authorization: This rule is placed in RCRA Cluster XI. The State modification deadline is July 1, 2002 (or July 1, 2003 if a State statutory change is necessary).

This rule was promulgated under non-HSWA authorities. The changes do not go into effect in an authorized State until the State adopts and receives authorization for the revisions. Only final authorization is available.

Attorney General Certification Guidance: Specific AG certification of statutory authority is not required for this type of regulatory change.

Program Description Guidance: Adoption of this rule will not impact the Program Description.

Incorporation by Reference Guidance: There is no special guidance for States that incorporate by reference.
