

US EPA ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

AGENDA

States/Tribes/Federal Meeting on Mine Placement of Coal Combustion Waste
November 14 and 15, 2001
San Antonio, Texas

- I. Explanation and Status of EPA's Minefill Risk Assessment/Modeling ("MRAM") Project and its Relationship to the EPA Coal Ash Regulatory Program [Bob Wahlstrom, DPRA (for EPA)]
- II. Presentation of Illinois Data Management System for Mine Placement Activities [Dan Wheeler, Illinois Dept. of Natural Resources]
- III. Review and Discussion of EPA Reports on "Regulation and Policy Concerning Mine Placement of Coal Combustion Waste in 26 States" and "Mine Placement of Coal Combustion Waste — State Program Elements Analysis"
 - Presentation by EPA [Bonnie Robinson]
 - Presentation by OSM [Kimery Vories]
 - Reactions from the States
 - Discussion
 - Next Steps
- IV. Overview of EPA's Program of Site Visits and Interviews with Individual State Offices that Regulate Mine Placement of CCW [Bonnie Robinson, EPA]
- V. Review and Discussion of States' Outline of Coal Ash Management
 - Use of Coal Ash — Distinction between Beneficial Use and Disposal
 - Principles for Beneficial Use of Coal Ash
 - Effectiveness of Existing State Regulatory Programs (Coal and Noncoal)
 - Inter-agency Cooperation and Coordination — both within the states and within the federal government (EPA and OSM)
- VI. Baseline Components of a State Program for Mine Placement of Coal Ash — Utility of a prototype program
- VII. New/Additional information and data needs
- VIII. Next Steps