When my Baby
Met the Morning Sun and the Sea

Love, marriage, puppy Next, we desperately wanted to conceive

After four years, it became clear, science and medicine does not rule nature

*I questioned
I accepted, I was humbled, and moved on...*

But, I also mourned because I so wanted to share our beautiful world with my child. I wanted to be able to share some of the most beautiful sights I have seen . The sun dancing on the water, the varied range of greens that can be found when the sun highlights grasses and trees, and the sounds and calm of nature.

One day, a miracle, as Nature can only be...

Life came, unexpectedly

A heartbeat, this time strong enough to stay with me through full term and allow him to enter into this world

Waiting for him to be ready, a little bit older, waited patiently

The time came...

We brought him to meet the sea and the morning sun

The senses he experienced, touch, sight, calmness, beauty, I can only hope

Then he bowed to the sun and water...

It was at that moment I knew that he would love and watch over our world

Now , there is peace
