7. Conclusions:

Since the submission consisted of 3 progress reports, they were not reviewed.

8. Recommendations:

This submission is being returned to RD with the recommendation that the Product Manager keep the progress reports and re-submit them to EAB when the final report of the forestry dissipation studies is sent to the agency. This is suggested in case the final report does not duplicate the information in the progress reports.

It is suggested that the registrant and USDA be apprised of EAB's general policy for assessing a pesticide's mobility, due to concern for ground water contamination. EAB recommends monitoring 2 feet below the point of lowest detectable residues in soil.

9. Background: USDA intends to do studies to fulfill the data requirements for the forestry uses of lindane, per the Lindane Registration Standard, which was issued in 5/85.
