

US EPA ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

Boston College Local Stakeholders
February 1999

1. The following people/organizations have been identified:
 - John Madden, Chemistry Department, BC
 - Advanced Environmental Technical Services
 - Environmental Action Center, Student Group at BC
 - Assistant Chief Joe LaCroix, Newton Fire Department
 - Lt. Mike Castro, LEPC, Newton Fire Department
 - Karen Rondeau, Mass Water Resource Authority
 - Capt. Tom Scavito, Boston Fire Department, Special Hazards Unit
 - Louise Bruyn, Green Decade, Newton
 - David Naparstnek, Newton Board of Health
 - Ruth Leiberman, Newton Dept. of Public Works
 - Various faculty in Biology and Chemistry Depts. at BC
 - Various administrators at BC

2. To notify stakeholders and interested parties, the following has taken place:
 - Local Stakeholder were invited to meetings held:
 - 1/13/98 (J. Madden, AETS, M. Castro and K. Rondeau attended)
 - 9/22/98 (AETS, K. Rondeau, J. Madden, M. Clarke & K. Harrison (both BC faculty attended along with EPA Officials)
 - A newspaper article appeared in the Boston College Chronicle on 4/23/98. The paper has a circulation of 9200 and is distributed to BC employees, students, visitors, neighbors, and local elected and appointed officials, alumni, and donors.
 - Information on the project and links are available on the BC EH&S web page.
 - Letters to D. Naparstnek and R. Leiberman were sent out 10/1/98
 - Various internal meetings at Boston College to include:
 - University EH&S Committee
 - Meetings with Legal Counsel, Financial VP, Director of B&G, Chairpersons of the Biology and Chemistry Depts., Faculty Meetings, Research Council Meetings, Research Administration and several others.