

US EPA ARCHIVE DOCUMENT

Enbridge Google Earth SOP for refreshing data

Follow these steps to refresh Google Earth layers, icons, and data.

1. Delete the previous Enbridge_operations.kml
2. Open Google Earth
 - a. Click Tools → Options
 - b. Click on the “Cache” tab.
 - c. Click the Clear Memory Cache
 - d. Click the Clear Disk Cache
 - e. Close Google Earth
3. Open the new Enbridge kmz/kml file in Google Earth
4. If the Legend layer icons are not showing:
 - a. Expand the Legend layer
 - b. For each individual sub-layer:
 - i. Right-click → Refresh
5. If the Base Layers icons are not showing:
 - a. Expand the Base Layers
 - b. For each individual sub-layer:
 - i. Right-click → Refresh
6. If the Region 5 Sample Data by Matrix layer icons are not showing:
 - a. Expand the Region 5 Sample Data by Matrix layer
 - b. For each individual sub-layer:
 - i. Right-click → Refresh
7. If the Air Monitoring Data layer icons are not showing:
 - a. Expand the Air Monitoring Data layer
 - b. For each individual sub-layer:
 - i. Right-click → Refresh – Note: Refreshing this Air Monitoring layer will take some time, approx. 5-30 minutes depending on your computer’s performance and bandwidth