Aimee,

An update to Freeport LNG's Greenhouse Gas PSD permit application has been prepared and has been forwarded to you and Mr. Jeff Robinson. A package containing the hard copy and an electronic copy on CD was sent to you by Federal Express; scheduled for delivery on Monday morning.

In reviewing the document after the package was sent out, I noticed the wrong word has been used in the first bullet in the second page of the cover letter.

The wording in the first bullet of the letter you will receive says:

- An overall reduction in total emissions of methane (CH₄), nitrous oxide (N₂O) and carbon dioxide equivalents (CO₂e) compared to the previous application information as follows:

Instead, this bullet should read:

- An overall reduction in total emissions of carbon dioxide (CO₂), nitrous oxide (N₂O) and carbon dioxide equivalents (CO₂e) compared to the previous application information as follows:

I have attached a copy of the second page with the correct wording. Please insert this page in place of the second page of the letter you receive.

I will forward a replacement CD containing the correct wording for this letter by overnight mail so please destroy the copy you receive on Monday.

I appreciate your consideration. If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks,

Ruben
